THE DAILY NEWS.

THE REVENGE.

BY ELIZA S. PRATT.

(Concluded.)

Still she did not perfectly comprehend, but clasped her hands in mute agony. She had risen, thrown over her a dressing gown, and now stood pale, speechless with terror before the relentless villain.

Crawford whispered the name of 'Kentland' in her ear, and at once she understood his horrible meaning and purpose. The thought had never entered her heart that Crawford was not her father, and though she fully believed him, the information conveyed no pain, otherwise than it might be connected with the certainty of her fate.

Now she understood the meaning of 'another visitor than myself,' and almost breathless with terror, she glanced about the room. She saw nothing, but she knew the capability of the man for evil, and sinking on her knees before him she sobbed aloud, praying in broken accents for reprieve. But the voice of pity never touched the heart of James Crawford—hardened as was that heart by the crimes and excesses of a long life devoted from boyhood to the love of gain. He put her aside with a demoniac laugh, and as the curtain which concealed the form of Kentland slightly stirred, he arose to depart.

'Scorned love must have its revenge?' exclaimed Kentland, approaching from his hiding place and attempting to seize the hand of the kneeling girl.

The young stranger could bear it no longer. He to whom KINDREN BLOOM spoke so loudly and so unerringly, rushed from his hiding place, and in an instant a pistol was presented to the heart of Kentland.

'Touch her not, or you are a dead man!' exclaimed he in a terrific voice, while the cowardly wretch shrank back abashed, for he was unarmed.

CHAPTER III.

Had a ghost appeared to the guilty Crawford, it could not have had a more terrible effect than the unexpected appearance of one of her kindred to Melanthe. The youth strongly resembled his father, and him had Crawford murdered twelve years before, on such an hour as this. It was like the spirit of the dead come to wreak vengeance on the living; and as he gazed, his hair stood bristling on end, and his knees smote audibly together. He was stupified, bewildered with terror, and stood motionless on the spot.

Not so with Kentland. As he retreated from the stranger, whose claims of kindred upon the young girl he had but too much reason to fear, he stumbled upon a small door opening upon the balcony, and which from the heat of the weather, had been left partially open. He felt it yield to his touch, and, springing through it, in a moment was upon the ground below. The stranger turned to Crawford, as the man disappeared, and addressed him in good English, but with a foreign accent.

'I have overheard, sir, the whole of your infamous plot—by the merest accident—and followed you hither to save the girl.—Here I have heard the remainder—that she is an Italian by birth, and a STOLEN CHILD. I am an Italian, sir—I had a sister, by name Melanthe, and she was stolen by a gipsy tribe when but five years old. I believe, sir, and his voice trembled with emotion—"I believe that God has permitted that I should save my own sister from a fate worse than death. Look upon this miniature and see if it does not prove the identity of the two."

He held the picture to the light, that Crawford might see it. It was that of a child five years old, taken immediately before her abduction from her parents, and young as it was, there was still some resemblance between it and the beautiful Melanthe, now grown into womanhood. It was a perfect picture of what she was when Crawford first beheld her, and aside from the resemblance of the youth to his father, that were enough to convince him of the relationship of the two.

While they were examining it, Melanthe softly approached behind them, and still half doubting, hoping, yet trembling with past terror—also looked upon the portrait.

There are chords which once touched will vibrate through the bosom, and awaken memories buried, and forgotten for the lapse of years. It was so with Melanthe. As she examined the picture, sweet memories of a bright and happy home came thrilling her heart. This mysterious and remembered link to the days of her infancy, awake and fashioned into form those half-shapen fancies that had hovered like a bright and golden dream about her, through long, sad and dreary years. She remembered her home, the pictured rooms of her father's house through which she had wandered a free and happy child—the birds, the flowers the musical flow of the marble fountains, and the silvery waters of the Arno. Then dimly stealing through the lapse of years, came her father's stately form: such as he was when he held her in his arms and listened to her innocent prattle. Then she remembered the sweet gentle face of her mother—and the loved caress that won her even from her guileless play. And lastly came up to her view the little brother who had roamed with her hand in hand through the flowery gardens, and orange groves of their Italian home!

She raised her weeping eyes from the picture, and sought in the lineaments of the youth, resemblance to her brother. It might have been fancy, but it seemed to her she could see the looks of the early playmate, and his name came mournfully to her lips.

'Lorenzo!' Melanthe! he replied, as the tears came to his eyes, and drawing her to his bosom, the restored brother and sister wept in each other's arms.

A friend says he saw a fence made of such crooked rails that every time a pig crawled through it came out on the same side.

'Tails up, I win,' as the horse said when he threw his rider.

NEWPORT DAILY NEWS.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1846.

To-morrow being Thanksgiving day, no paper will be issued from this office.

THANKSGIVING.—According to time-honored custom, the Governor of this State has appointed to-morrow "to be observed as a day of public Thanksgiving, praise and prayer, to Almighty God, for the innumerable mercies He has been pleased to bestow upon us, His sinful and undeserving creatures." Until within a few years, the custom of observing one day in a year as a day of thanksgiving, was confined to the New England States, but of late years it has become more general, and is now observed, in most, if not all, of the States in the Union. It was suggested, sometime since, by the press, to have a general Thanksgiving, either appointed by the President of the United States, or by an arrangement between the Governors of the different States; this suggestion has been complied with by the Governors of fifteen States, out of the twenty-nine. Thanksgiving occurs to-morrow in the following States: Rhode Island, New York, Ohio, Kentucky, New Hampshire, Michigan, New Jersey, Vermont, Massachusetts, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Iowa, Maryland, Louisiana. In Maine and Missouri, Dec. 31st is the day; in Georgia and South Carolina, Nov. 5th was observed. It is to be hoped that hereafter the same day will be appointed throughout the Union.

Nine schooners, belonging at Marblehead, were lost in the gale of the 19th of September, together with their entire crews, consisting of seventy-five men and boys. By this calamity, forty-five widows have been made, and one hundred and fifty-three children, orphans. A gentleman from there says: Their state of destitution and distress is extreme. Universal gloom, apparent to every stranger, pervades the town, and it is believed that the authorities will feel called upon to make an appeal to the public for aid to relieve the wants of the bereaved, during the inclement season that is approaching.

LATE FROM CALIFORNIA.—The St. Louis papers communicate the gratifying intelligence that Gen. Kearney had been met on his way to California by an express from Col. Fremont, with information that he had driven the Mexicans entirely out of Upper California, had taken formal possession of the country and government, and was himself acting Governor of the territory; and that the new order of things was progressing peaceably, quietly, and in perfect security.

In consequence of this information, Gen. Kearney sent all his men back to Santa Fe, with the exception of 100, with whom he proceeded on his way, to form a junction with the heroic Fremont.

A Washington letter says: "Several changes have been made in the Post Office Department to-day. Mr. Morrow has been promoted to the office of second Post Master General. Mr. Dundas has the place of Mr. Morrow, and there are some lesser changes. The office of second Post Master was formerly held by Mr. Miller, brother-in-law of Ex-President Tyler."

TEA.—The annual consumption of tea in the United States, is about 18,000,000 pounds.

THIRD ATTEMPT UPON ALVARADO.—A letter from the Gulf Squadron says that Commodore Conner informed the captains of the several ships that he again intended to attack Alvarado with 2,000 men. The following ships he intends to anchor off the fortress at the mouth of the river, for the purpose of bombarding it—frigates Comberland, Raritan, Potomac, and steam frigates Mississippi and Princeton. The steamers Vixen and McLane, with the gun-boats Reefer, Forward, Petrel and Bonita, will proceed directly up the river, and attack the fort.

THE CHEROKEES.—The Washington Union learns that the course adopted by the President in relation to the difficulties and feuds which have so long distracted these interesting and once powerful people, has resulted in bringing about a satisfactory understanding among them, and uniting the various factions into which they were divided, and in restoring peace, fellowship and social harmony throughout the whole nation.

The Boston Times came out with a new dress on Monday, and it now looks as "neat as a pin." The Times is one of the best papers in Boston for late news.

HEALTH INSURANCE—SOMETHING NEW.—By an advertisement in another part of our paper, it will be perceived that the New England Health Insurance Company, have established an Agency in this town, and invite our citizens to share in the benefits of their association. The very low price exacted for a policy, brings it within the reach of every one, and we predict that the healthy sons of this incomparably healthy Island will improve the opportunity thus afforded them, to keep their wages going on, when accident or sickness would otherwise deprive them of their labor. We are great advocates of Odd Fellowship, and all other charitable associations, but, we must confess, that for real cheapness, this has our preference.

THANKSGIVING IN PRISON.—The inmates of the state prison at Charlestown have voted, with the consent of the officers, of course, to keep thanksgiving by prayer and praise as appointed by the governor.

A BEAUTIFUL SIGHT.—The Old Hickory, on her passage up from New Orleans, met, on the morning of the 26th of October, a short distance below the mouth of the Ohio, twenty-two steamboats—all within sight of each other, and all bound to the great southern depot, with heavy cargoes of Western produce. Eight were from St. Louis, and the remainder from the Ohio. From New Orleans to St. Louis she met with ninety-seven steamers, thirty-five of which were from St. Louis.

Ship-building is extensively patronized down East. Twelve new ships are on the stocks in the little town of Bath, in Maine.

A writer in the New Orleans Tropic avers, that the $2,000,000 seized upon by Santa Anna, was taken with the sanction of Great Britain.

On one estate near Guinness, Cuba, in the late storm, eighty-four negroes were killed by the falling of the buildings.

20,000 persons have died at Teheran, the capital of Persia, in two months.

Our torres in California and the Pacific are estimated at 1,700.

The Van Ness case is still on trial in Washington, the testimony for the plaintiff not being yet concluded. It has been proved that Mrs. Connor had a child, which Gen. Van Ness acknowledged, and several letters written to Mrs. C., were produced, in which he calls her his wife, and styles himself her "affectionate husband." A daughter of Mrs. Connor was under examination on Saturday, and she testified, that on the 2d of August, 1845, she left Washington with her mother, for Philadelphia, reaching that city, the same night, at 11 o'clock. The General came there, and witness said to him: "General, I am now ready to go with you and Ma, to-morrow morning, to see you married." The General said: "No, Serena, you must not go. Your mother and I can be married as well without you as with you; and I want to converse with her alone." Serena still pressed the point, and again received a similar answer. Her mother and the General went out in a carriage, the next day, and were gone for some time. Her mother afterwards told her that the General had the certificate of the marriage.

Another witness testified that General Van Ness had acknowledged to him that he had a wife and child. Several other persons were called to prove that the letters previously produced, in Court, were in the handwriting of the General. It is expected that the case will occupy the whole of the present week.—N. Y. Mirror.

Fifty tons of poultry came over the Boston and Providence Railroad to this city on Saturday last, from Rhode Island.—Boston Times.

Rev. John Maffit is preaching in New York.

From the Boston Daily Star, of Feb. 10, 1846.
SOMETHING NEW.—No small excitement has existed among the nice young men, and the bald-pated old men, lately, in consequence of the advent of a new hair liquid—Bogle's Hyperion—which is said to be voted, by the knowing ones, the ne plus ultra of all hair improving inventions. We have received from Mr. Bogle a sample of this novelty, and feel very much disposed, even on so short an acquaintance, to fall into the tide of praise which is setting towards it. We have given our pate a soak, and after due repetition, shall be able to speak more definitely of this important matter. We believe it is first rate, but you can decide for yourself, by calling on Mr. Bogle, and trying it.

CAUTION.—The public are particularly cautioned against purchasing imitation articles pretending to have the same effect as Brown's Sarsaparilla and Tomato Bitters. Never buy the Sarsaparilla and Tomatello Panacea, Kittredge's Tomato Bitters, nor Extract of Sarsaparilla, Tomato, and Dandelion, or any other preparation with the expectation of getting the genuine Brown's Sarsaparilla and Tomato Bitters, which are prepared at his Medicine Store, No. 68 Washington street, Boston. These Bitters are the first preparation of the kind that was ever sold, and they are the only genuine article of the kind now in the market. Always see that the direction is signed Frederick Brown, in his own handwriting. Who ever heard of a man's counterfeiting a bad bank note, or one that would not pass? Just so it is with medicine: they always counterfeit that which sells.

All orders for Brown's Sarsaparilla and Tomato Bitters directed to Frederick Brown, the proprietor, No. 68 Washington street, Boston, will be attended to punctually. Bitters securely packed for shipping. None genuine unless signed Frederick Brown, on the wrapper. Nov. 15.

Dr. Banning's Patent Body Lace, For Weakness of the Body.

The following letter is submitted to a discerning public, and the proprietor is enabled to refer to many individuals—whose testimony will satisfy the most incredulous. Be particular and get Banning's Lace, and be put off with nothing else.

WARREN, August 22, 1846.
Dr. Boardman.—Dear Sir:—Now being about leaving for home, I am able to give thus far a favorable account of the Lace which I have worn only four days. For more than four years I have suffered greatly from dyspepsia, that scourge of our race. My food has always been so troublesome that my stomach would reject it almost every day—my bowels always constipated—my head always feeling heavy and unpleasant, and my spirits greatly depressed. I was unfitted for any regular business, and till I saw you, I had given up the hope of ever being better. I had consulted many physicians and in Boston, those the most celebrated, and spent nearly all the money I could earn, upon them and medicines. Since I have worn the Lace, all these symptoms have in a great degree vanished, and now, it seems to me, I shall be well again. I find my body regaining its erect position—the spitting up my food is pretty much over, my spirits and energy are returning, and I feel like a new man.

CLOTHING. CLOTHING.
Large enough for the largest man, and small enough for the smallest boy.
We warrant men a perfect fit,
That's not the most successful hit?
For with their matchlessness of cut,
Far more celebrity we've got;
Small gain on one alone we reap,
But here's our motto—"we sell cheap."

At the great
OREGON CLOTHING WARE HOUSE,
Corner of Thames & Franklin Streets,
May be seen the largest and most splendid assortment of Ready Made Clothing ever offered in the town of Newport, at prices which cannot fail to suit, and a little superior and cheaper, than at any other similar establishment in the town. These goods cannot be surpassed, if equaled, for neatness, taste, elegance, and durability. This well selected stock was bought on the cash system, and can and will be sold cheap. Come now all ye, while the doors are open unto you, and be clothed from the crown of your head to the soles of your feet.

Among the above named articles may be found
Cloaks,
Which dignify the human form—
As beautiful as they are warm.

Pilot Coats.
They cost mere nothing, and so stout,
It takes you years to wear them out.

Bover and Broadcloths.
They seem forever fresh and bright,
And give the wearer great delight.

Dress Coats,
Cut, pressed, and made in lasty manner—
They win the envy of the scanner.

Pantaloon.
Fine stitches, tightly drawn, and strong—
The reason why they last so long.

Vests and Scarfs.
There's nothing can adorn the breast
So well as can a handsome Vest,
But what's a Vest without a Scarf?
It's like a smile without a laugh;

It loses half of its expression,
No man should think of such aggression.

Also may be found Collars, Bosoms, Shirts, Handkerchiefs, Gloves, Suspenders, Hats, Caps, Boots, Shoes, and all other articles generally worn by the Male part of the community. Don't forget the Oregon Clothing Ware House corner of Thames and Franklin Streets.

Genuine Bears Oil—Highly Perfumed.—Perhaps our ladies and fashionables are not aware that three quarters of the 'Bear's oil,' (so called,) with which they annoint their locks, wondering that it does them so little good, is nothing in the world but hog's lard, so highly scented as to escape detection, save on close examination. This, however, is simply the fact, and one that ought to be known. The only safe way is to purchase your Bear's Oil of HENRY JOHNSON, who gets it direct from Canada, and the North Western territory, and who never sells an ounce until he knows it to be genuine. The real Bear's oil is a wonderful beautifier and strengthener of the hair, and should be used by every one desirous of beautiful locks.

Bogle's Hyperion Fluid; Or Vegetable Hair Composition.
THE subscriber has been induced to bring this article before the public, at the request of his numerous customers, among whom are physicians and citizens of the first respectability, who have adopted its use in their families, and wish others to participate in its advantages.

The Hyperion is composed of vegetable ingredients, the secret of compounding and blending which is known solely to the subscriber. It is an article in which a cleansing and purifying wash is beautifully blended with a most delicate, silky and glossy moisture never before attained, yet free of animal grease or essential oils. It clears the pores of the skin, causes a healthy action in the blood vessels, nerves, &c., which feed the hair, thereby preventing BALDNESS AND GREY HAIR.

It entirely frees the skin from Scurf, Dandruff, and other cutaneous diseases, disposes the hair to curl, and changes the hardest hair into the most soft, glossy, and healthy state, also imparts to it a darker color, and the free use of it, bath on the skin and hair, in a most healthy and luxuriant state until the latest period of life.

Ladies will find the Hyperion a great addition to the toilet, both on account of its delicate and agreeable perfume, and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which, when moist with the fluid, can be dressed in any required form, so as to preserve its place, whether plain or in curls.—When used on children's heads, it lays the foundation of a good head of hair.

Manufactured and for sale by WM. BOGLE, 229 Washington, corner of Summer street, Boston. Sold in Newport by R. J. TAYLOR.

A Treatise on the Anatomy and Physiology of the Hair, with directions for preventing baldness, removing dandruff, and preserving the natural beauty and softness of the hair, by WM. BOGLE, accompanies each bottle. Aug. 24—1y.

DR. BANNING'S PATENT LACE!

An immediate Relief to Incipient Consumption, the Bronchitis of Public Speakers, Palpitation of the heart, Dyspepsia, Spinal Weakness, Piles, Protrusions, and Diseases of Women, without Medicines.

THIS instrument has been examined by Drs. Mott, Rodgers, Francis, and Griscom of New York, the faculty of Pittsburgh, Hartford, New Haven and Middletown, and has obtained for itself their favorable testimony. The following will show what kind of testimony might be produced in many cases:

Middletown, June, 25th, 1843.

Dr. Boardman,

Sir—In answer to your inquiry respecting my case, I will merely say, that I have been sick since I strained my breast and loins in May, 1836, from that time continued to grow worse, when in the fall of '39, I abandoned business, and have not done any thing since. I suppose from all I could learn about my case—frequently raising blood, coughing very hard and expectorating profusely, deriving no benefit from my physicians, and all medicines recommended to me, that my case was hopeless. Last winter my brother told me he had heard a good account of Dr. Banning's Lace in such cases, and was anxious that I should try it; accordingly I procured one from you, and since I began to wear it, my breathing, which was very short and laborious, has become easy and natural; the pain and fluttering or palpitation of the heart has subsided; cough and expectoration greatly lessened, my limbs which were exceedingly painful have become useful, so that I can walk comfortably. I am able to shave myself with comfort, which for many years I have not been able to do. The piles, which have troubled me for nine years, are nearly eradicated. I work some in the garden, and am able to ride 4 miles at once with pleasure and benefit. Yours, &c. WM. BANNING.

Dr. G. M. Boardman, Middletown, June 25, 1843.

Dr. Boardman,

Dear Sir—In answer to your inquiries respecting the effect of Dr. Banning's Lace in the case of my wife, I will state that for twenty years past, she has been afflicted with a complication of complaints to which females are subject. She has tried all the physicians and all the medicines recommended for such complaints, without regard to expense, and found only temporary relief. Her most distressing complaints, palpitation of the heart, oppression and a sense of great weight at the pit of the stomach, prolapsus of the womb, &c., were believed after wearing the lace two hours, and she has continued to improve daily. With this view of the case I cannot use language strong enough to convey my approval of the instrument. aug. 29th. STEPHEN BROOKS, Jr.

Providence, Feb. 26, 1846.

Doctor Boardman,—Dear Sir—I now take my pen to inform you that my wife's health has improved very fast for the last two weeks from wearing one of your Laces. She has been out of health about two years and has worn a different Supporter from yours, which had only two pads. She received some benefit from that—but it would not produce a cure. But now I can say with pleasure that she is as smart as any of the young girls in the neighborhood. She can now run up and down stairs as fast as I can, and I feel so well pleased with it that I hardly know how or what to write. But one thing I do now, that she has been under the care of seven Doctors in one year—and wearing your Lace two weeks has or will do the cure in a very short time. I want to write more, but I have no time. I am truly, your friend and well wisher, J. * * ***

Glove Anodyne Toothache Drops.—The Glove Anodyne is the best of all Toothache remedies. It is immediate and certain in its effects, curing the most violent toothache, or pain in the gums in ten minutes.

Experience has proved that this Anodyne composition will give immediate and permanent relief, after the failure of every other remedy; it is pleasant to the taste and smell; will not injure the teeth or gums in any way, and a few applications will entirely renovate the pain and soreness from a decayed tooth, so that it may be filled and rendered useful as ever. When the pain proceeds from the face or gums around a tooth apparently sound, this application will give speedy relief, by rubbing a few drops to the part affected.—Price 25 cent. Prepared and sold by HENRY JOHNSON, Chemist and Druggist, 273 Broadway, corner of Chambers-st., in the granite building. Sold in Newport by R. R. HAZARD, near the Court House. Oct 27 6m

From the Brooklyn Daily Advertiser.

A BEAUTIFUL YOUNG LADY residing in W. street in this city, has received great and unexpected benefit from the use of that excellent specific RADWAY'S CHINESE MEDICATED SOAP. Some few weeks since she was on a visit to some other relatives in South New Jersey, where she was very severely bitten by musquitoes, being at the same time very much exposed to the scorching rays of the Sun, she experienced great pain, and irritation from the effects of the musquitoe, and much annoyance from the unnatural darkness of her tanned complexion. We recommended her to use that excellent Medicated Compound, RADWAY'S CHINESE MEDICATED SOAP, she complied with our request, and in three days there was not a single spot, blotch, pimple or blotch left upon her skin; and her complexion is now as fair as the Lily.

Ladies, secure without delay a cake of this inestimable Soap, it will purify your skin, improve your complexion and remove all disfigurements entirely from the surface of your system. Price 12-12 cts. per cake. Sold in Newport by R. J. TAYLOR, Agent. Aug 7

IT is now about ten years since this medicine has been introduced to the public, and it stands unrivalled in its effects, bearing the test of the severe scrutiny of all classes, both friendly and unfriendly. It is but for one purpose—for the use of Mothers who have to pass through a sea of affliction in giving birth to mankind, not to be described. It is to you we make an appeal. It is for your especial and general good that you should make use of one bottle of the MOTHER'S RELIEF before confinement. Then you can approach the parturient chamber without feeling as if you were going to the chamber of death. You may rest assured it will still all ferberile and nervous affection. It smooths and shields from irritation and by its peculiar properties it destroys the cause of hemorrhage or inflammation that so often attend and follow the hour of parturition. It causes sweet and natural rest, and at last facilitates the birth, so that Mothers have not to pass through such excruciating pain and distress. The Mother's Relief may be depended upon in all cases of threatening abortion where it is possible to be prevented in cases of Spasms, &c., causing frequent alarm, from two to three doses will give immediate relief.

As the subject is one that cannot with propriety be fully discussed in this public manner, we invite all who feel interested to call on our agents (most of the respectable Druggists in the United States,) or on the manufacturer, and they will be furnished with a pamphlet in which they will find all the facts to form a correct opinion of its merits, and also the opinions of many physicians of eminence, and of persons who have become acquainted with its beneficial effects.

CAUTION TO PURCHASERS.—Ask for Bannister's Mother's Relief. None is genuine unless our signature are found within the wreath of the direction that is pasted on the bottle, signed with our own hand, and over the neck of the bottle is a fac simile of our own hand writing also. By attending to the above directions, no one need be imposed upon. All orders will be promptly attended to. DR. G. A. BARTHOLOIC,

LORRAINE'S PILLS.

All persons require. Facts.

DR. LORRAINE'S CURATIVE SYSTEM OF MEDICINE is rapidly producing achievements never before known in the cure of diseases. The immensity of its wonderful results, alone demonstrate that its principles must be founded on truth. The relative proportion of Cures by this Medicine is out of all proportion greater, than by any other Medicine known.

THE THEORY is, that one blood beats in the bosom, and flows through the body of every man, and must be pure; it is the Vital Principle that sustains life.

Physicians, and people of every class are willing to come forward and announce, in the most public manner that they have been cured of long standing complaints—after another medicines had failed. In fact there can be no doubt but that Lorraine's vegetable Pill is the best medicine ever offered to the public.

See a few public statements of men of truth and virtue.

Lynn, Dec. 17th, 1843.

Sir: I have sold all the pills I had had of you, please send another lot immediately. The sale of Lorraine's vegetable Pills is rapidly on the increase, they are becoming very popular. I sell more and more every day. As a curative medicine and purifier of the blood, I think they stand unrivalled. One fact I have noticed, that no one that has used them finds any fault with them; they have wrought some very great cures. One lady, who has been confined to the house and bed, a great part of the time, for twenty years, is now cured and able to work most of her time, after having taken 3 boxes only of Lorraine's Pills! I might name many other cases where the cures have been as great, but have not time. Yours respectfully, J. E. F. MARSH.

Portland, Me., Nov. 7th, 1843.

Sir: Please send us one gross of Lorraine's Pills, we have sold all we had last. They have given very good satisfaction, better than any other pills which we have in our market. I think in a short time they will take the place of others. We have had no fault found with them whatever; but, on the contrary, they have been praised loudly. I think we could have quite a number of highly respectable certificates from our citizens. Yours respectfully, E. MASON.

Chats, Jan. 3d, 1844.

Sir: I transmit to you an account of my case for publication, believing it to be my duty. I have been confined with the Rheumatism nearly the whole winter, have had some of the best physicians of Boston and could get nothing that would relieve me more than temporarily. I heard of the wonderful virtue of Lorraine's Pills, I had no faith whatever, but I took them, and it is a solemn fact that when I had taken but eight pills! my Rheumatism had entirely left me, and I have remained well ever since.

N. B. I never took more than one pill at a time and that on going to bed.

Yours respectfully, W. M. HAYSTAL.

OPINION OF A SKILLFUL PHYSICIAN.

Sir, the operation of Lorraine's Pills is past any philosophy to find out, how so small a Pill can produce such wonderful effects. I find that one of them will operate more than 3 or 4 of any other Pill, yet in their operation, mild, gentle and comforting. On this account, they are more than 100 per cent, cheaper, as physis, than any other Medicine I know of.

These Pills are now acknowledged by thousands who take them daily, to be the only medicine that fairly takes the Banner from all others. This extraordinary medicine has actually done Wonders within one year past. They cause no pain or uneasiness of any kind in their operation; and require neither change of diet or care of any kind.

The attention of the reader is respectfully called to the important results from the use of these Pills. It will be seen, however great achievements have heretofore been made by the use of this invaluable medicine, still greater and more remarkable cures daily happen.
